Soracom

I worked with Kris while we were building our Soracom team in the US from scratch, and he was instrumental in that growth. Kris connected us to exceptionally talented individuals who brought the skills we needed and genuinely fit our culture. Many of them are now core members of our team, driving our continued expansion... He doesn't just fill roles, he helps build teams.

Case Study: ARDUINO

Italy-based open-source hardware leader. Acquired by Qualcomm in 2025

Arduino faced a critical period of expansion in the U.S., requiring a founding recruiter across core commercial functions.

What we delivered

Built the founding US team in just four months. 15+ hires

TOM ANZUR

Senior Vice President, General Manager

Company

ProAutomated

He is one of the few in the recruiting world that took the time to truly understand what was needed for success in the role, digging much deeper than others I've worked with in the past... Kris is on top of the ever changing automation sector which helps him parachute into any conversation and actively start dissecting the needs of his clients.

President – Americas

Company

FLOLIVE®

I've had the pleasure of working with Kris Watson, and what sets him apart in the recruiting world is his exceptional commitment to truly understanding your business, culture, and specific talent needs.

From our first conversation, it was clear that Kris prioritizes relationships over transactions. He became a true partner, aligning his efforts with our goals and values.

If you're looking for a recruiter who goes beyond the resume to find the right people for your team, I can't recommend Kris highly enough. His thoughtful, personalized approach makes all the difference.

BRENT CLINE

Blues

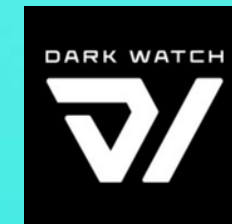

It's rare to encounter a recruiter who is consistently recommended by multiple partners at the same time. I had the opportunity to work with Kris across five hiring events, and his performance stood out immediately.

He does not simply fill roles. He identifies and delivers talent that is tightly matched to the requirements and long-term success of the position. Compared to typical staff recruiters, Kris outperforms by a wide margin in both quality and consistency.
